

Practical Personal Finance Seminars for Graduate Students and Postdocs

Fifty-five percent of doctoral students are stressed about their personal finances.<sup>1</sup>

Trainees often struggle to understand their pay; manage their spending effectively; calculate their tax due; and decide whether to prioritize their lifestyle, investing, or paying down debt.

They are in need of resources created precisely for them.

Dr. Emily Roberts offers seminars that both motivate stipend-receiving graduate students and postdocs to optimize their finances and equip them with the knowledge and tools to do so. The seminars and workshops are specific to PhD audiences, tailored for your institution, and followed by plenty of time for Q&A. Available seminars include but are not limited to:

- The Graduate Student and Postdoc's Guide to Personal Finance
- Why and How to Passively Invest as a Graduate Student or Postdoc
- Whether and How to Pay Off Debt During Graduate School or Your Postdoc
- Effective Budgeting Strategies for Graduate Students and Postdocs

Reviews from previous hosts:

- "Emily's presentation was extremely popular among our graduate students. Her knowledge on financial planning as a graduate student was informative, thorough, and engaging and our students gained valuable information that they can use to plan their personal finances. We look forward to working with her again!" – Brittany Leclerc, Operations and Enrollment Management Specialist, Graduate School, Brown University
- "Emily's talk has been a huge success... Her presentation is engaging, informative, and useful to our graduate students as they begin to think about their financial as well as their professional lives. I would highly recommend inviting Emily!" – Rachel Pepe, Operations Manager, Liberman Graduate Center, Washington University in St. Louis

Dr. Emily Roberts is a personal finance educator specializing in early-career PhDs. Through her business, Personal Finance for PhDs, she equips graduate students, postdocs, and PhDs with Real Jobs to make the most of their money. She gives seminars at universities and for associations; interviews graduate students and PhDs on her podcast; serves as a money coach; and creates courses and workshops on taxes, investing, and more. Emily holds a PhD in biomedical engineering from Duke University and lives in southern California with her husband and two children.
